Descripción : Troilo had spent several days in waste ground of a town near Sevilla. Some people were feeding him and tried to catch him but he run away. Yesterday with the help of a trap, they could catch him and brought him to Argos. His left front leg is injured and he limps, although he uses it to walk, so maybe it is not a very recent injury. We have an appointment for him at the trauma vet tomorrow afternoon. He has a cut on one ear that we are conviced has been made with a knife, to mark him.

He is very sweet and docile, although he was a bit scared and "worried" at first, after a while he was feeling more confident and happy... he even wanted to play with the other dogs he saw.

He seems to be cat-safe.

Troilo llevaba días vagabundeando por un descampado cerca de un pueblo, y varias personas le alimentaban y le daban agua, pero no conseguían cogerlo porque estaba asustado y huía. Por fin lo pudieron coger unos colaboradores nuestros y nos lo trajeron. Llegó muy asustado, pero al ver a los otros perros jugar, enseguida se animó y se le quitó el miedo. De carácter es dócil y cariñoso, y por su juventud, esperamos que pronto pierda el poco miedo que le queda. Cojea de una pata delantera, pero la apoya por lo que debe ser una lesión antigua. Parece que es compatible con gatos.
